Summary: In this paper, attention has been given to the question of obligation and execution of effective court rulings in administrative proceedings in the way they are regulated in the new Law on Administrative Disputes of Serbia. In order to explore the quality of new solutions, it was necessary to make a comparison with the solutions provided in the previous Law on Administrative Disputes. It was the best way to show that there is continuity in terms of law of the institute and that there has been a qualitative step forward in their superstructure. This step forward is reflected in the introduction of rights to compensation and possibilities for punishing managers by fines. The practice of the competent authorities and time will be the best judges as to whether all this will be effective.
