

ACTUAL SITUATION AND FUTURE PERSPECTIVES OF THE PRIVATE SECURITY IN THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA

Zlate Dimovski

Ice Ilijevski

Kire Babanoski

Faculty of Security, Skopje, University St. Kliment Ohridski

Abstract: The subject of this paper is the current state of the private security in Macedonia. For the purpose of this review the notion of security will be especially processed, the legal bases for Security in the Republic of Macedonia, agencies securing persons and property, statistical review of private security in the Republic of Macedonia, the current weaknesses, flaws, shortcomings and problems facing and its future prospects in Macedonia. Research methods that are used go in the direction of approaching the topic method of description, which described the aspects of regulation of the private security in the Republic of Macedonia, the method of analysis, which examines in detail the situation in this area, the historical method, through which chronologically shows the conditions and events during the operation of private security, security assessment method, which through analysis of events and work evaluates the extent and the level of development of this sector, and the method of security diagnosed with which identification has been made of the actual characteristics of the private security sector. The purpose of this paper is obtaining realistic and objective view of current developments in this sector, which is actually a subsystem of the security system and a relatively young sector in Macedonia, appearing about 10 years ago. During its operation, there were a series of irregularities, flaws, shortcomings and mistakes, so this review of private security in Macedonia allows them to identify from its constitution, until today, and also contributes to the creation of new insight and functional solutions.

Keywords: private security, Republic of Macedonia, securing, system, agencies, chamber

Pages 73-85