

CRIMINAL OFFENCE OF CAUSING TRAFFIC ACCIDENT BY NEGLIGENCE

PhD Vid Jakulin

Faculty of Law, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

Summary: The author analyses criminal offence “Causing of Traffic Accident through Negligence” in the Slovenian Penal Code. The author finds that due to aleatory harmful consequence, caused by violation of the due handling in negligent criminal offences, grater significance should be given to the relation to violation of due handling, which discloses perpetrators relation to the protected good and gives grounding for reproach – that is for the argumentation of guilt. The author is convinced that the relation to violation of due handling is so important that it should be taken into account not only in the process of imposing punishment but also in the creation of disposition.

Keywords: Slovenia, traffic accident, negligence, due handling, negligent criminal offences.

Pages 37-45