

Dear Dane!

I congratulate you on the Day of Statehood of the Republic of Serbia!

Our peoples are united by centuries-old traditions of friendship, good-neighborliness, cultural and spiritual values, joint trials and Great Victories.

Every year our relations become stronger and more fruitful. We are sincerely glad to have established business and friendly relations between us and our universities. I am sure that this co-operation will continue, and we will do everything possible to strengthen and develop it.

I wish you and your loved ones good health, good luck, peace and prosperity, new achievements and victories!

S. Ivanov
