

SAINT-PETERSBURG UNIVERSITY OF THE MIA OF RUSSIA

Respected Dane Subošić,

On behalf of the management and staff of the Saint-Petersburg University of the MIA of Russia, please accept warm greetings and best wishes to You and the staff of the University of Criminal Investigation and Police Training of the Republic of Serbia on the occasion of the Serbian Statehood Day.

On one of the most significant public holidays, I would like to wish Serbia for many centuries to remain a strong and prosperous state in which people live comfortably and safely.

I would like to note that international relations between Saint-Petersburg University of the MIA of Russia and the University of Criminal Investigation and Police Training of the Republic of Serbia are becoming stronger from year to year, and mutual understanding is becoming more complete. This gives us confidence in the need to develop partnerships in the future, not giving up in the face of difficulties and trials.

Dear friends! I sincerely wish you good health, prosperity, success and new achievements.

Respectfully,

Head of the Saint-Petersburg
University of the MIA of Russia
